

CANADA-AFRICA STUDY EXCHANGE & CITY TO CITY COOPERATION
PRELIMINARY TECHNICAL FRAMEWORK MATRIX
OCTOBER 2006

Canadian city/province: Vancouver/British Columbia	Tools (Tool development; useful publications...)	Partnership (Partnership with institutions eg police, private sector; communities)	Policy/strategy (Integration of safety into municipal operations; financing; communication...)	Training (Understanding of tools, tool application...)	Institutionalization (Responsible persons/depts. for management of Technical Co-operation; sustainability systems/ mechanisms; accountability systems/ mechanisms....)
African city/province: Durban/ KwaZulu- Natal
Priorities for KwaZulu-Natal (province to province exchange)			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Political, social and economic systems supporting the "Rights of Indigenous groups"- possible lessons from South Africa; - Democratic Civilian oversight practices on policing; - Driving Access to Justice Programmes 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Possible promotion of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between British Columbia and KwaZulu-Natal - Provincial arrangements for 2010
Priorities for Durban (city to city exchange)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Study of the Hughes Report on the management of complaints on policing - Use of Educational tools 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Collingwood Community Policing Centre Model - Community Policing the "Community Way" - Linking Vancouver 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Youth-in-Development Exchange between Aborigine youth and South African Youth 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Lessons from the practice of the "Copwatch project" to encourage communities to perform oversight on police conduct 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Twinning arrangements between Vancouver and Msunduzi (Pietermaritzburg), Richards Bay.

	on Justice to promote understanding by communities and respect for law and order	Community Police Centre's "School Liaison Officer" project to Kwazulu-Natal's Hlanganani Project
Other issues		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Victim Link – potential exchange between South Africa's Lifeline agency and Victim Link in Vancouver - Business support for urban safety and tourism promotion - "Safe Teas" project for the elderly in South Africa, particularly rural communities 			