FOR A BETTER URBAN FUTURE

Bringing together national and international artists, representatives of arts foundations, the private sector arts industry, and young people active in the arts for a unique networking and dialogue event.

A special focus on the re-launching of UN-HABITAT's "Messengers of Truth Programme", originally a special designation given to Hip-Hop artists actively engaged in urban issues:

- the right to shelter
- violence free communities,
- adequate health; and
- economic, education training opportunities for youth.
